

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR

24 September 1984

NOTE FOR: DDI

FROM: EA/DDCI

Bob:

Do you know anything about this?
Could you have someone give me a few groups on this and let me know if it would be appropriate for (you?) to ante up someone.

Thanks,

Mr. John McMahon
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington D.C. 20505

Dear John:

DIA has been discussing intelligence support with the SDIO for some time and we have arrived at an agreement for the mutual coordination of intelligence requirements and support. Briefly, it involves a set of interactions with the SDIO at all levels on a regular basis plus provisions for ad hoc briefings and seminars between SDIO and Intelligence Community personnel as appropriate. As part of our support we have established a Strategic Defense Intelligence Advisory Committee chaired by the Defense Intelligence Officer for Strategic Programs and R&D. I invite you to have a representative on that committee. One of the committee's purposes is to act as a point of contact and coordinating group for intelligence support to the SDIO.

The Secretary of Defense was scheduled to discuss this briefing with the DCI at their meeting last Thursday; however, I wanted to communicate directly with you on it, as well.

My point of contact for overall coordination of this endeavor is Mr. James McCrery, DIO-SP/R&D, 695-0243. He will look forward to CIA participation on the Advisory Committee.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Jim", is written over the typed name.
